

MARY VAN DER BOON

Mary van der Boon is Founder and Managing Director of global tmc international management training & consulting based in the Netherlands. She provides an extensive range of services as human resources, intercultural and diversity management trainer and consultant to multinational, governmental and non-governmental organisations based in Europe, the Mid East, North America and Asia. She has lived and worked outside her native Canada for almost 30 years and speaks Dutch, Thai, Lao, Malay, and Bahasa Indonesia in addition to English. Building on studies in journalism and communications, Mary studied anthropology and traditional law at one of Indonesia's oldest universities and has held facilitator and guest lectureship positions at universities in Indonesia, Thailand, Canada and the Netherlands. She has an MBA in International Management from Leiden University School of Management.

She is adjunct faculty for the University of British Columbia's Centre for Intercultural Communication and lectures frequently on international management issues, including Asian business, diversity and women in management, at business schools and universities in Europe, Asia and North America.

She is member of the European Institute for Managing Diversity in Barcelona and external senior trainer to the Royal Tropical Institute (KIT) in Amsterdam in Asian global business strategy. Her intercultural, human resources and diversity clients have included top executives from Fortis, Heineken, ABN-AMRO, Philips, CSM, Ahold, Air Products, TNT, Honeywell, 3M, the Mars Corporation, the Canadian Foreign Ministry and Unilever. She is contributing author to the International Handbook of Women and Small Business Entrepreneurship as well as to Career in Your Suitcase, a guidebook for international professional women.

She serves on the board of the Netherlands Canadian Chamber of Commerce and is President of the European Professional Women's Network in Amsterdam. She holds memberships in the European Women's Management Development (EWMD), the European Mentoring and Coaching Council (EMCC), the Worldwide Network of Women Business Owners (FCEM), the Asia Society, European Southeast Asia Society (EUROSEAS), American Society of Training and Development (ASTD), Society of Intercultural Education, Training and Research (SIETAR) and the Society of Human Resource Management (SHRM).
